Dear Mr. Arnoff,

The Zion Episcopal Church has "adopted" a school in Darbonne, Haiti, for the past 25 years. Part of our commitment is to send good used (previously worn?) clothing to the students and the adult faculty and support staff. When we asked for your help we were overwhelmed with the speed and enormity of your response. We filled up twenty-two large boxes and packed them in a sturdy container, all supplied by your company. It came to a total of 850 pounds. If Zion Church had to pay for shipping the clothing to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, the cost would have put a tremendous dent in our Darbonne budget. For this we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

One of the nicest aspects of working with Arnoff was talking with Peggy Hurley. You are fortunate to have her as the "voice" of your company. Peggy made sure all the t's were crossed and set up the moving process from beginning to end. I shall look forward to thanking her in person. I also was lucky enough to meet one of your drivers, Dan. Dan looked like a person you might have bumped into on the Lewis and Clark Expedition He said he has worked for Arnoff for 35 years. I think that says it all.

And lastly, I must mention Joe Corrigan. Joe and Kathy have been friends for almost 40 years. It was Joe who suggested calling and said he had information dating back to the sixth grade that might serve as a catalyst. I shall advise him that this was not necessary

Again. Thank you so much for your generosity. We are in some tough times, but it is the tough times that bring out the best in people.

Sincerely,

Jack Devine
